EXPERIENCE

Freelancer

April 2018 - PRESENT

I 've been assigned several tasks for the last three years and all of them have been successfully completed. A reddit clone, a real-time messaging app with trial messages and AES encryption, a GraphQL API in SQL/NoSQL versions, an AI model trained to recognize cats and dogs and an intelligent chatbot that can answer all sorts of questions to mention a few.

I am always eager to be involved in new things, contribute to team work and always to expand my knowledge and skills for as much as I can. I am interested in the AI sector and I am currently in an entry level.
